MILLER SPRINGS GETS ONE MILLION DOLLARS

The United States Senate has approved one million dollars for the Miller Springs Dam. The appropriation was a part of the 620 million dollar water ways construction bill.

The Miller Springs Dam is a vital part of the flood control on the Brazos River and directly affects Milam county since Little River is the largest tributary of the Brazos.

The army engineers have stated that construction work on the long-needed dam, located north of Belton and west of Temple on the Leon river, could begin sometime this summer if the appropriation is finally approved. It provides $930,000 for actual construction and $70,000 for completion of detailed plans. However, planning is now far enough advanced that work could begin without delay.

Central Texas supporters of the Miller Springs project are hopeful that the $1,000,000 appropriation will stand up in the conference committee's version of the bill. They remember, however, that no construction funds for the dam were included in the house bill, and that house members of the joint committee could refuse to go along on this project and others added to the bill by the senate.

Bridge Contractors Not Relatives of Resident Engineer

The Texas Highway Commission awarded the contract for the construction of the new bridge over the San Gabriel River and roadway approaches on Farm to Marker Highway 487 to Richard Schmidt and Son, Contractors, of Austin, Texas. Date of award was May 20, 1948.

V. R. Schmidt, Sr., Resident Engineer of the State Highway Department, who will be in charge of this construction, advises that the successful contractor is not a relative.

Man Who Says He Is Jesse James Visited Here Some Years Ago

Frank Dalton or the man who now says he is Jesse James was in Cameron for several weeks in the winter of 1940.

At that time he was claiming to be Frank Dalton, only survivor of the Dalton gang, notorious Oklahoma badmen.

The other day at Centerville, Texas, where he has been living for some years, he said he is Jesse James. History records that Jesse James was shot to death in 1882. The James boys, Frank and Jesse were with Quantrell in Missouri and Kansas, also they teamed up with Bob, Jim and Cole Younger in the Kansas border wars prior and after the civil war. The gang was broken up in an Iowa bank robbery and Bob and Cole Younger sent to prison. The James boys escaped.

Dalton is now enjoying the limelight of publicity at Lawton, Oklahoma. Many have said the man is a fakir.

We Eat Cauliflower Raised In Sand Country Here

The Publisher and family enjoyed cauliflower Sunday, one of our favorite vegetables.

A very large head was produced on the E. A. Beckheusen farm in the sand country east of the river. He said he has not heretofore produced it but finds the sandy soil of his region of the county well adapted to the vegetable.

The impressive fact about this fine specimen of cauliflower is the emphasis on the Magic Soil Belt of which Milam county is the center.

LOCAL GUARDSMEN GO TO SUMMER CAMP

Cameron's Battery C. 239th Field Artillery Battalion will attend the National Guard's summer camp this year, Captain Rudolph Michalka announced today.

The two weeks camp and training program will be held at Camp Hood from August 15th through the 29th. Plans call for Battery C to make the trip there in its own vehicles. At Camp Hood, according to information received by Capt. Michalka, the men will have quarters in barracks and will eat in mess halls. It will not be necessary, therefore, to "rough it", as was often the case in prewar encampments.

The training program, it is expected, will include practice in the operation of an artillery unit under conditions in the field.

This will be the first post-war summer camp held by the Texas National Guard. Units from all parts of the state are scheduled to attend and an estimated 9,000 men will participate.

TIM PARKER, FORMER RESIDENT HERE DEAD

Timothy M. Parker, 59, a Houston police officer for 27 years, died in Heights Hospital at 12:15 p. m. Tuesday from a bullet wound inflicted last Saturday.

Mr. Parker was shot in the stomach with his own .32 caliber pistol, in the living room of his home at 2023 Oxford, after he and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Glover, 2411 White Oak, had returned from a picnic about 5:45 p. m. Saturday.

The officer customarily carried the small .32 caliber pistol when he was off duty, Mrs. Parker explained, and on return from the picnic he had laid it on the living room table while Mrs. Parker wrote a note to the couple's son, Thomas Parker, a rookie policeman, to tell him they were going out again.

Mrs. Glover noticed the pistol and picked it up, thinking it was a toy according to Mrs. Parker. The pistol went off, the bullet striking Mr. Parker. He was rushed to Heights Hospital and had been under treatment there since.

Mr. Parker was a native of Cameron. He came to Houston 32 years ago and joined the police force as a patrolman on February 1, 1921. For the last 16 years he had been on the North San Jacinto Street beat, according to Police Lt. Carl Shuptrine, where he was widely known and liked. He had scores of friend in the police department.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Thomas Parker, who joined the police force only last month; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Edna Manton of Dallas; two sisters, Mrs. Nanny Osborne of Houston, and Mrs. T. O. Dillon of Somerset, Ky., and two grandchildren.

JESTER HAS CLOSE CALL AT STATE CONVENTION

BROWNWOOD, Tex., May 25 — The state Democratic convention adjourned at 10:55 p. m. today. The meeting was in continuous session for 12 hours and five minutes. It started at 10:50 a. m.

BROWNWOOD, May 25 — Texas Democrats will go to the national convention instructed to fight President Truman's civil rights program, but pledged to support whoever the party nominates for president.

The delegation will be uninstructed as to presidential and vice-presidential nominees. It was instructed to fight for restoration of the two-thirds rule.

The state convention tonight voted overwhelmingly to bind its 23 presidential electors to vote for the party nominees. A proposal for a party referendum for or against binding the electors to nominees opposed to the federal civil rights program was squelched in committee.

The convention followed Gov. Beauford H. Jester's advice to fight the national administration on the questions of civil rights and federal acquisition of the tidelands, but not to desert the party.

It was a path described by Jester as a middle-of-the-road course in the Democratic party's dissension. The Jester and anti-Truman forces had a hard fight to gain control, but two test votes routed the pro-Truman faction.

Election of Wright Morrow of Houston as national committeeman from Texas was the final test putting the anti-Truman faction in firm control. A test earlier today had left the issue in doubt.

The action on Morrow was a definite victory for the state's rights faction—a relatively small but powerful minority. The Truman group was also in the minority on a nose count of delegates.

Morrow has firmly opposed Truman. He was elected over Mayor Tom Miller of Austin, backed by the Trumanites. Miller's backers conceded about two thirds of the way through a roll call when it became apparent he could not overcome Morrow's lead.

The convention by resolution overwhelmingly recorded its "unalterable opposition" to the Truman civil rights program, declaring it to be contradictory to the principles of

PROSPECTS GOOD AS PRICES RULE HIGH

The tomato market will open in Cameron Monday, May 31 it was announced by J. L. Foster of the Foster Produce Company.

Mr. Foster told The Herald Wednesday morning that he had talked with one of the largest tomato shippers in the nation in Kansas City early Wednesday and market factors are very favorable. "If we had tomatoes of quality as of to-day," said Mr. Foster, "we would pay 10c pound." This figure is more than was paid at any time in 1947.

Mr. Foster said that outlets for Texas tomatoes are now saying that this area is the tomatoe capital of the world. "I have been trying to tell people about this fact for a long time," said Mr. Foster.

The Magic Soil Belt of Milam county produces the best tomatoes in the world. so proven by consumer and by packer and shipper.

Planters here started out this year with a 35 per cent increase over the 1947 acreage. The crop is very late. Weather factors were unfavorable and crops had to be replanted. The crop has cost the farmer more than any other crop in recent years. The stand is not the best. The tomatoes are looking very good and some have been marketed.

Heavy rains in the Rio Grande Valley may have damaged the crop there considerably but will help younger plants. This misfortune may help local growers as the country depends on Texas for tomatoes.

Mr. Foster has added equipment for processing the crop, one a waxing machine to preserve that Magic Soil quality in shipment. He can handle about twice the volume of last year.

Mr. Foster said he expects the crop to be at maximum market volume by June 10.

CAMERON GETS .41 AS COOL FRONT COMES IN

Cameron got .41 inches of rain Tuesday evening with the precipitation much more heavy in the western and southern parts of the county.

In the Rockdale and Minerva communities the rain was heavy, amounting to some 2 inches. Sandy Creek went out of banks and the whole area got a heavy rain.

West and southwest of Cameron the rainfall was also heavy. It did nothing more than sprinkle north east and north.

The tomatoe crop was greatly benefited. In the Milano country substantially an inch fell and early morning showers in the Hoyte community and as far north as Marlow, made the total precipitation rise to soaking proportions.

The rain in Cameron broke into the graduation program at the Athletic Field. The exercises were finally held in the auditorium at the high school.

Forecasts Wednesday indicated 50 degrees in north Texas to-night and some prospects of more rain. West Texas where parched lands have been barren for months got fair rains and in the Rio Grande Valley heavy rains fell on Tuesday.

By Thursday the temperature will rise and warmer weather will return.

VETERANS CAUTIONED ABOUT ALLOWANCES

Veterans claiming G. I. unemployment allowances between terms may be expected to take any reasonable work within their physical abilities, Nat Wofford, manager of the Texas Employment Commission, advised all college student veterans today.

He cautioned them against claiming unemployment pay for periods covered by G. I. subsistence allowances. This is a violation of federal law.

The Texas Employment Commission administers Title V of the G. I. Bill of Rights. Servicemen's readjustment allowances, the $20 a week unemployment payments, go to eligible jobless veterans seeking employment through offices of the Commission. The law requires they be available for suitable work. Payments stop when they have found jobs, refuse suitable employment, or not actively seeking work.

Veterans seeking temporary work are eligible for G. I. unemployment pay if they are ont receiving subsistence allowances.

Mr. Wofford said the veteran who had finished school and wanted permanent work would be given every opportunity and assistance in getting the kind of employment he desired. While unemployed, he would be eligible for readjustment allowances.

However, the fact that a veteran is seeking temporary work between school terms sharply limits his choice of jobs. This means when he claims allowances he may be expected to

MRS. ANNIE C. CLEMENT IS BURIED AT SALTY

Mrs. Annie Connell Clement died at her home in Salty late Sunday, May 16. The body was at Phillips and Luckey funeral home in Rockdale until Tuesday afternoon when it was taken to the church at Salty where services was conducted by Rev. C. Edward Fraim, pastor of First Christian church, Rockdale. Burial was made in the family plot in the cemetery near by.

Casket attendants were: Sampson Connell, A. C. Miller, Richard Parker, Norman Clement, Pat Lightfoot, and Frank Stiles.

Mrs. Clement was born at Conoley near Thorndale, 83 years ago on April 30. She was a member of a pioneer Texas family, the founder of which came to Texas from Tennessee when Texas was a part of Mexico. His name was Sampson Connell who, with his son Sampson Jr., participated in the Battle of San Jacinto. When the Republic of Texas was young, Sampson Connell, the elder, lived in Washington county and upon his death was buried at old Independence Cemetery in that county. Swisher in his Memoirs said that he was a Wagon Master in the Texas Army under Sam Houston and, as such, contributed largely to the cause of Texas independence.

The family moved to Milam county, lived for several years at Conolly and then in 1871 went to Bear Creek near Liberty Hill, where Annie Connell Clement grew to young womanhood and became an accomplished musician and a young lady of beauty and social charm.

She married into a prominent Milam county family and lived first at Davilla and then to Cameron where her husband, the late Frank J. Clement was for a long time County School Superintendent and always was a prominent educator, having attended both Sam Houston Teachers College and the University of Texas. Later in life the Clement family moved to Austin where they lived for some years and where Mr. Clement was employed in public service and the family took their rightful high place in church and social work.

Mrs. Clement was a member of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas and held the unusual distinction in that patriotic woman's organization as a "real daughter", being both daughter and grand daughter of men who took part in that decisive battle in Texas history.

Mrs. Clement was rich in the heritage of the fine, honorable, courageous and patriotic character of the Connell family. She was large of frame, big hearted and given to mastery of situations, and conditions of all human relations. She was an excelent mother who was master of her household, yet gentle with firmness and tact; she was a helpmate to her husband and a confidant to friends throughout her great and busy life. She was a lifelong member of the Christian church and always active in work and councils. She walked not in darkness for there was always the light of love and laughter where she went. Out of her life there shown the light of her golden optimism. To her there was no task too great, no hill too high to climb. Throughout life she seemed to say;

"I live for those who love me
For those who love me true,
For the Heaven that smiles above me,
And twaits my coming too:
For the cause that lacks assistance,
For the wrong that needs assistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I can do."

Relatives and friends throughout Texas, New Mexico and California mourn her passing. The immediate family bereft by her loss are, Mrs. Nona Clement Parker, Frank J. Clement of Austin, Connell Clement of Thorndale. There are four grandchildren and one great grandson.

Modest Leo Brushes Off Praise; Says It Belongs to The Boys

By G. B. DOLAN
In Temple Telegram

During the past school year, he regarded the District 23-A field as Peter Rabbit would a lettuce patch . . . with the same results.

The good-natured, grinning coach, with the able help of Dick Young and Harrison (Red) McLerran, led his Yoemen to championships in all four major sports—football, basketball, track and baseball.

That trio of mentors left a trail of broken records that would stretch from Cedar Creek to Springtown, printed by hand on small scraps of paper.

It was the first time in history that Yoe high school collected all four titles . . . and a Yoeman won a state championship for the first time since 1915, when the school came home with a tennis ribbon.

T. J. O'Neill, ace football back, won the 220-yard dash in the state meet at Austin.

The little speedster also came in third in the 100-yard dash, and accounted for most of Cameron's 16 1-3 points.

Football—For the second year in a row, the Yoemen crashed to district and bi-district championships, only to lose in the regional finals. In 1947, the Yoemen were nosed by Mexia, 8-6, in their only loss of the year. The club won 10 games and rolled up a total of 285 points against its 11 opponents' 42.

Basketball—Cameron's cagers won both tournaments to determine a district champion, elbowing past a play-off scheduled in case one team won the first tourney, another the second. The Yoemen bowed in the regional meet to titlist Brenham.

Track—Yoemen won both district and regional titles, and O'Neill and Pole-valuter Laurence Michalka went to the state meet. Michalka placed sixth.

Baseball—The Yoemen, with one game left, have run up a string of 12 wins against no losses. They meet cellar-dwelling Taylor in the final game. It probably will be played in Cameron Tuesday. Bobby Wilkerson was credited with seven wins, Muggo Garcia five.

NEXT SCHOOL year will be more bleak for the coaches, but the chunky energetic Jackson cautions "Don't count us out."

The Yoemen lost 18 football lettermen and have but one regular—190-pound Fullback Howard Beale—returning.

Some of the brighter prospects include:

Ends—Bobby Wilkerson, 180, and Olin Armstrong, 140.

Tackles—Robert Zotz, 194 and Melroy Eximan, 194.

Center — Co-Captain Gordon Gibson, 160.

Basketball will follow the same pattern, with All-District Center Bobby Wilkersan, a six-foot three-incher, the only returning regular. But Young has some good reserves coming up.

In track, the two stars—O'Neill and Laurence Michalka—will be lost but Hurdler John Matula, Half-miler Thomas Michalka, Jumper Wesley Braden and Fieldmen Gibson, Eximan and oZtz will be back in there pitching. The squad will be weaker in spring and valuting events, but stronger in the hurdles, half-mile and field events.

The baseball team will be just as strong, maybe better. Only losses will be Pitcher Muggo Garcia and Second Baseman Billy Hanes. Both are fine players and will be hard to replace, however.

ASKED FOR HIS success formula, Jackson grinned and said he'd "trade anybody's system for material."

"It's 85 per cent material and 15 per cent coaching," he said earnestly.

"Who ever heard of a mule winning the Kentucky Derby".

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Strickler of Austin were Cameron visitors Friday.

Mrs. Guy Slocomb of Houston spent a few days in Cameron this week visiting, Mrs. Don Slocomb.

Elaborate Program Milano Junior-Senior Banquet Produces

"Jack Quebe Wilkerson-President of the national honor society Phi Beta Kappa" was one of the startling revelations from the senior prophecy as given at the Milano Junior-Senior banquet on the night of May 7, in the lunchroom. The faculty and the trustees were also guests. The banquet table was decorated with red candles, red roses, and magnolias, carrying out the colors of the senior class. Each place was provided with a souvenir program made in the form of a red book and a red mint cup made in the form of a graduation cap carrying out the theme of school days and graduation.

Jimmie Robinson served as toastmaster. Among the several toasts made were those to the seniors, Mr. Pruett, the faculty, the coach, and the cooks. The program presented by the juniors included two musical numbers, one of them a comedy rendition of "Old Mac Donald Had a Farm" by James Pratt, Andrew Kirk, and C. D. Magee, the other "The Old Lamplighter" by Billie Jean Rutherford and Dalpha Nell Hurt, a short pantomine entitled "The Simpleton" which gave evidence of unusual dramatic ability in James Pratt who played the title role. Billie Jean Rutherford and R. P. Fussell astounded the group with the improabable predictions that they made for the members of the senior class.

Seniors honored on this occasion were Jackie Burkett-president, Jack Quebe Wilkerson, Glenn Blackman, Carl Pairett, Wesley Corder, Joe Robinson, Fred Garcia, Odell Pratt, Leland Garrison, Billie Jean Corbin, June Westbrook, Carrie Vinton, Patsy Wilson, Earnesteen Smith, and Kenneth Burgess. Dale Owens and Oral Lee Diver, the other seniors, were not present.

Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. T. McCallum, Mr. and Mrs. C. Robinson, Miss Quitah Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pruett, Mr. Charlie Martin, Mrs. Jessie Bankston, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Whatley Jr., Mrs. Nonnie Renfroe, Mrs. Bob Bailey, and Mrs. E. Browder.

The juniors present were Jimmie Robinson, James Pratt, C. D. Magee, Cecil Kornegay, Curtis Huddleston, R. P. Fussell, Andrew Kirk, Charles Woods, Herman Hairston, Alfred Owens, Carol Wise, Billie Jean Rutherford, Dalpha Nell Hurt, Mary Ellen Parker, Evelyn Yakesch, and Nancy Watts.

The sophomores and freshman homemaking students served. They carried out the color scheme by wearing white blouse, ballerina skirts, white aprons and red ribbons.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Jahnke made a business trip to Brenham last week. They visited in the home of Mrs. Annie Rodenbeck and Mrs. L. F. Winkleman and attended the May fiesta while there.

CASO MARCH ENTERS RACE FOR GOVERNOR

March promised an aggressive campaign.

"I am out to win this race for the plain people of Texas, and I shall fight Governor Jester in every county and precinct in Texas in the same vigorous manner that I did two years ago when I became the first candidate in Texas history to visit every county seat in Texas," the Baylor university law professor said.

He said he will end his relationship with the Baylor law school June 1 and open his state head-quarters in the Roosevelt hotel at Waco.

The 37-year-old purple heart veteran of World War II touched on Jester's oft-quoted "un-Texan" remark.

"He (Jester) said it was un-Texan for veterans to want a state bonus. He didn't say anything about it's being un-Texan for him to go up to Washington in 1945 to get a thirty-cents a barrel increase in oil—bonus for the oil companies," March said.

March also criticized Jester on his refusal to call a special session this year on the rural aid school teacher's pay problems.

"He has failed the school teachers of Texas. With a surplus in the state treasury, he preferred to borrow money from the banks to pay teachers. Apparently he would rather pay interest to the banks than call a special session to solve the problems," March said.

March outlined this platform:

"1. Repeal of the state property or ad valorem tax.

"2. Tax the gathering of natural gas, which is now almost tax free, 2 cents per thousand cubic feet; raise $50,000,000 per year to be distributed in four parts roughly as follows:

Aditional state funds for the teachers of Texas.

Additional funds to be used to match federal funds to provide $50 per month pensions for the old people, and other humanitarian purposes;

"Aditional funds for soil conservation, water conservation and farm-to-market roads;

"Inaugurate a World War II veterans bouns.

"Protects the rights of labor to organize and bargain collectively."

He plans to open his campaign offically on the courthouse lawn june 4 in Waco.

Evangelist F. M. Durham of Houston transacted business in Cameron Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Alex Bonds and Mrs. Graham Gillis attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Clement at Salty last week.

John C. Solomon Is Visitor Here For Short Time Saturday

John C. Solomon, former minister of Presbyterian church here, was a visitor in the city for a short time Saturday morning. He was on his way to Austin and had spent the night Friday with his brother in Calvert, also a minister .

Mr. Solomon was one of the best loved of all the men in the ministry who has lived here. He was active in civic and social work and was a Rotarian, having served as President of the local club.

He is now located in South Carolina. Mrs. Solomon and their son, John are in Rusk visiting Mrs. Solomon's mother. They plan to come back to Texas in the future.

MRS. B. F. ROBINSON IS GRAND PRIZE WINNER

More than 400, many of whom were visitors to Cameron for the occasion, attended the second annual flower show sponsored by the Cameron Delphian Club Tuesday evening from 3 to 7 o'clock. Mrs. Lena Baskin was general chairman for the show which was composed of 155 exhibits or arrangements.

Mrs. B. F. Robinson's entry in the annuals and perennial class, won first in that division and took the grand prize for the entire show also. While many of the arrangements were quite outstanding, most spectators agreed with the judges that the velvety purple pansies banked at the feet of the madonna figurine on the bowl and shading lighter toward the lavendar stock in the arrangement, were most fitting and rayally beautiful with the serious subject.

Numerous arrangements and plants were entered and the sponsoring club is happy over the response and cooperation accorded the show. The soft green of the background walls in the church made a fitting and spacious setting for the show which was free to the public.

Miss Hary Randolph of the Delphian Club had arranged a miniature of Mount Vernon, home of Washington, complete with its grassy lawn and boxwood hedges to fit into the show setting and this display proved a high point of interest. Miss Mildred Thornton, president elect of the club, also framed a desert scene that was most attractive.

Delphians served in the hospitality department faithfully and iced punch was offered from a lace covered table during the afternoon.

Judges were representatives of Temple's Three Garden Clubs, Mrs. Arthur E. Collier, Mrs. T. Wayne Goolsby, and Mrs. J. W. Marrs. Mrs. T. F. Bunkley, also of Temple, assisted the trio. These women recently completed a course entitling them to a certificate for judging flower shows and are well acquainted with the lines that make for most perfection in arrangements and with horticultural exhibits. Mesdames Collier and Bunkley have almost completed work on national certificates. They have judged several shows including the Alfalfa Fiesta flower show in Hearne last week. All of the judges were high in praise of the "clean" well planned show and expressed themselves as surprised at the large number of entries and variety of subjects coming in the wake of the recent heavy rains.

Grand prize for the show, the only prize given, was a lovely flower picture. Other winners received the customary blue, red and white ribbons for first, second and third places respectively. Many of the exhibits, too fine to be by-passed were marked Honorable Mention by the judges.

Club records show the following winners in the various classifications: with first, second and third winners listed respectively:

Annuals and perennials: Mrs. B. F. Robinson, Mrs. Eber Flinn and Three Arts Study Club.

Bulbs, Tuber and Rhizones: Mrs. Bob Terry and Mrs. Frank Monroe tied for first place, Mrs. E. A. Flinn, and Mrs. H. N. Tate.

Specimen Plants: Mrs. W. Vogelsang, Rev. R. L. Lemons, Mrs. J. C. Freeman.

Small arrangements: Mrs. R. G. Grabein, Mrs. Conn Miller and Mrs. W. C. Freeman.

Bubble Bowl Arrangements: Mrs. J. C. Freeman, third place.

Potted Plants: Mrs. H. L. Yager, Miss Aetna Smith, and Mrs. Alvin Dusek.

Special recognition went to the displays of Misses Randolph and Thornton, and Mrs. John Ryan received a ribbon for her basket arrangement of Texas Annuals.

Mrs. A. W. McCullin, outgoing president of the Delphian Club, all of the club members and especially the energetic general chairman are to be commended for their co-operation and work back of the splendid flower show which is to be an annual event.

OREGON PRIMARY MAY PUT DEWEY IN FRONT

Governor Dewey of New York was leading Harold Stassen, former governor of Minnesota in the Oregon primary early Saturday as substantially half the state's precincts had been heard from.

The New Yorker had 43,000 and the Minnesotan had 38,000. There was still a slight chance that Stassen might move up but it was generally believed that Dewey had won. It was an all out fight and the results may put Dewey out in the lead among Republican hopefuls for President.

Mr. Stassen has thus far won more delegates than any of his opponents. Republicans do not like men with ideas. He must be a subservient, conservative and so the big wigs set out to kill Stassen. They apparently have won their victory over the liberal from Minnesota who wants to outlaw the Communist Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Dodosn will attend graduation exercises at Schriener institute, Kerrville, next Tuesday, where their son, Clyde Dodson is a student, and will accompany his parents back to their home in Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hairston and daughter Patricia of Luling spent the past weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bartow Jackson of Cameron.

more telephone calls

More and more calls from more and more telephones have taxed the capacity of switchboards and operators alike during these days of equipment shortages. Even so, most calls at most times go through promptly.

If, at times, you do not hear "Number, please?" immediately, it's because hundreds of other people are calling at the same time and operators are doing their best to answer each call in turn. This is especially true during the busiest hours of the day—midmorning and early evening.

We're putting in more equipment as fast as we can get it. Our aim is to eliminate delays and answer every call promptly.

This note of warning is being issued to prevent veterans from running afoul of federal fines and penalties. Also, loss of G. I. entitlements will result from drawing the $20 weekly unemployment pay at the same time as subsistence allowances.

Express Company Is Doubtful of Changes In Carrier Status

L. O. Head, president of Railway Express Agency, said today that his Company had not been officially consulted about any reported change in it's status as an express carrier, as recently reported in the press. Nor. had any studies of it's package traffic, properties or other services been made to justify such a statement.

It was pointed out in 1947, the customers of Railway Express paid $442,000,000 for transporting 193,000,000 express shipments. This is evidence of the huge public demand and need for the complete transportation service which Railway Express is providing. Mr. Head continued that it will undoubtedly take more than an expression of opinion to do away with that need.

If, as claimed, the handling of small packages by express is uneconomical to the railroads, it will likewise be uneconomical to the tax payer, who is already paying the heavy annual loss sustained in parcel post service to which it has been suggested a certain part of the traffic now being handled by Railway Express Agency be diverted.

PAT M. NEFF MAY BE DRAFTED SAYS REPORT

Former Governor Pat Neff said Wednesday he did not desire to comment on a report that labor, farm, old age pension, co-operative, and teacher groups were considering drafting him as a candidate for Governor.

Joe T. Steadham, chairman of the joint Railway Labor Legislative Board in Texas, earlier told The Associated Press "quite a few representatives of these groups had been contacted by telephone and the consensus seems to indicate the drafting of either William McCraw or Former Governor Pat Neff."

A meeting of the representatives will be held in Fort Worth between May 25 and June 3, Steadham said. Deadline for a candidate for Governor to file for a place on the Democratic primary ballot is June 7.

Neff told The News-Tribune he did not know he was being considered as a possible candidate.

Asked if he would run if drafted, he repeated: "I have no comment to make."

Neff retired recently as president of Baylor University, McCraw is a former attorney general. He was defeated for Governor by W. Lee O'Daniel in 1938.

Air Conditioning Is Forging Ahead; New Things Shown Here

Great progress in air conditioning and home refrigeration is being made and the Cameron Sheet Metal Works has announced the Carrier line said to be the largest in the world.

Whats more it is a Texas industry with headquarters in Houston. F. J. Lima and R. S. Lamey who recently began business with the sheet metal works have taken on the Carrier line with a number of counties.

It is very interesting to see the types of equipment now available. For instance you can buy a beverage box, or you can buy a deep freeze that has a unit on each shelf and just the thing for the home—looks like a refrigerator. You can get an ice box that makes up to 90 pounds of ice, just a little ice factory in itself.

The modern air conditioning units are interesting and quite practical, they can be had from the small type to cool one room to types to condition a skyscraper and every type of building in between.

The Carrier line has florist refrigerator cabinets, refrigerators for bakers and even for blood banks. Mr. Lima was with the Carrier corporation for a long time and understands this equipment.

"The thing we are most happy to say is that there will be no waiting around for your units", said Mr. Lima, "and we can make immediate deliveries. The prospect is good as we go into the hot summer."

This year more than 50,000 persons are expected to attend the Bear Club Rodeo, third largest rodeo in Texas. All performances will be presented at night, June 21 through June 27, with the same rodeo stock to be used later this year in Madison Square Garden.

NIGHT SPOT HARVEST OF TROUBLE IS HEAVY

WACO, May 23 — Two persons were slain and three others critically wounded by pistol fire in two separate shootings here in McLennan County shortly after midnight Saturday night.

Dead were:

Francis E. Wetzel, about 29, Waco.

Torvio Dominquez, 25, Waco.

District Attornel Gene Maddin said that Constable A. L. (Fate) Trollinger of Axtell, 13 miles northeast of here, was charged with murder in the death of Wetzel.

Trollinger, who said in a statement that he shot in self-defense, was released on $1,000 bond.

Wetzel's brother, J. B., 28, and Marvin Schlemmer, 21, of Reisel, were critically wounded. They were admitted to a Waco hospital for treatment. Both had been shot in the abdomen.

The shooting occured outside of a dance hall in Elk community, 14 miles east of here. Trollinger said in the statement that he and his son, Master Sgt. James L. Trollinger, an Army recruiter stationed here, went to the dance hall together.

The constable said that his son was kidded at the dance hall because he was an Army recruiter and that an argument arose.

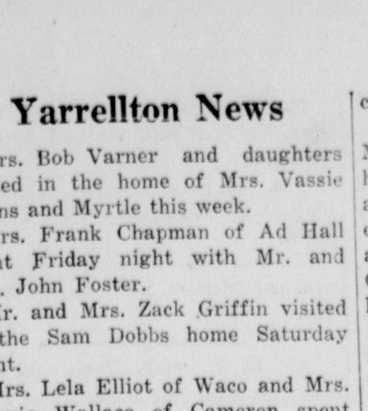

The district attorney's office indicated that the grand jury would probably be called in this week to investigate the shooting.

The other shooting occured at a night spot here.

Dominquez was shot to death and D. C. Coleman, a Negro, both of Waco, was critically wounded.

PICNIC FOR STUDENTS AND TEACHERS FRIDAY

Marlow school students, teachers and sponsors were in Cameron early Friday morning for the annual Picnic Day activities.

There are 22 students, two teachers and five sponsors. The visitors were given a welcome at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on their arrival early Friday and then their round of activities began.

The program for the day for the Marlow visitors was somewhat the same as other schools visiting here this year on invitation of the Public Relations Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. They will see things of interest to them in the way of the industries and plants such as the city affords. They will visit a bank and public buildings and one of the places of interest to them The Herald plant where they saw the afternoon edition of the Daily printed.

The students and teachers and sponsors get a free copy of the paper with their names printed in the story of their visit. They can utilize the copy for their scrap books and to remember a very pleasant day spent in Cameron during their school year.

The current program of entertaining school children has given the Chamber of Commerce some very favorable comment and no doubt other cities will follow the example. The Public Relations Committee of the Chamber feels it is doing a fine thing to entertain these students and teachers and are building good will.

Co-operation has been good. The tours are conducted by E. C. Cole, Chairman of the Committee and L. G. Smith, Manager of the Chamber of Commerce. The picnic lunch and a portion of the activities of the day occur in City Park where playground equipment was installed some years ago.

The Marlow School like other schools is nearing the end of the term and soon vacation will begin. The picnic here Friday was among the last events of the year. Cameron was glad to welcome the students from Marlow.

Here is the list of the students teachers and sponsors:

SUBMIT MASSEY CASE TO APPEALS COURT

AUSTIN, May 20—The five-year sentence assessed Mrs. Ola Dee Massey of Waco for kidnapping was before the Texas court of criminal appeals today, on appeal from Milam county.

Emory A. Camp of Rockdale presented arguments for the appellant, maintaining that the 1931 law under which Mrs. Massey was convicted is invalid. The attorney also contended that the court made an error in refusing to admit a letter which the defense offered in testimony, and that District Attorney William Morrison of Cameron made a reversible error when he demanded of the defense attorney that a diamond brooch be brought into court.

The state charges that Mrs. Massey kidnapped Mrs. Mary Johnson of Cameron, and took her to Waco from a Cameron hospital. It contends that the kidnaping was for the purpose of taking Mrs. Johnson's property. Evidence presented by the state at the trial tended to show that after Mrs. Johnson was put in a hospital at Waco. Mrs. Massey went back to Cameron and took silverware and other property from Mrs. Johnson's home.

The defense contention was that Mrs. Massey took the property for safe keeping while Mrs. Johnson was ill. Mrs. Massey did not take the witness stand, nor did the defense offer witnesses at the trial.

Morrison contended before the court of criminal appeals that the kidnaping law is valid and that errors were not made in the trial.

Dust and Failure Of Clock Hard on Century of Routine

Dust storms and failure of the town clock has seriously interrupted the century of routine in the old town.

When the sand is kicking up through traffic the hands on the clock are hard to decipher but folks can hear it strike. Since the clock is neither running or striking life don't go on as usual.

It looks hopeless at times but remember winter is only about 7 months away. During the summer we can wear cork hats and goggles and struggle from one fan to another.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's Leap Year, Girls!

First girl in our town to "get her man" on Leap Year was the Cuppers' daughter, Jane, who wed Bill Webster's boy last Saturday.

When I asked Bill Jr. if it was true that Janey really did the proposing, Bill said: No, but she made it plain she'd make an ideal wife. Instead of looking for diversion or excitement every evening, she was content to chat beside the fire.

"I could plainly see," says Bill, "that we'd really have a happy home life—which is just exactly what I want from marriage."

I know it's usual for older folks to shake their heads over the younger generation. (It's gone on for hundreds of years, now.)

But from where I sit, young people of marrying age today are every bit as commendable as their elders were—in their temperance (a glass of beer for instance), tolerance, and common sense. So to Jane and Bill—the best of luck!

COMES OUT FIGHTING IN SATURDAY SPEECH

AUSTIN, May 22—Lyndon Johnson came out fighting this week as he opened his campaign for United States Senator.

Step-by-step the Central Texas Congressman reviewed his program for "Preparedness, Peace, and Progress". He told the voters clearly where he stands and challenged other candidates to do likewise.

Johnson struck out sharply at the President's Program, calling it a "farce and a sham". He recalled that he has fought Federal anti-poll tax, anti-lynching, and FEPC legislation during his 11 years as a Congressman and promised to continue the fight in the Senate.

Speaking to the largest audience of the political season in Austin's Wooldridge Park, the vigorous 39 year-old lawmaker called upon the people of Texas to join the volunteer "Johnson-for-Senator Committees" that are working for his election in every Congressional district of Texas.

Johnson called no opponent by name emphasized that Texas needs a man of courage and ability as Senator—not a man who is "just calculating".

Johnson said the United States must be strong and prepared—ready to draw a line for war-making countries and say, "You shall go no farther."

Expressing optimism for peace, he pledged his continuing support "to help those who are willing to help themselves" and make them our friends in the fight against Communism.

For the progress and prosperity of America, Congressman Johnson outlined a "square deal" for the farmer with strong support prices, blacktop roads, electrified homes, and expanding soil conservation and water conservation. The farmer, he added, must not be left to the mercy of speculators who make fortunes without setting a hand to a plow.

For the schoolteachers, Johnson proposed federal aid to give them "a salary as big as the job". He advocated a federal old-age pension program big enough to take pensions out of politics.

He blamed the rising cost-of-living on the Republican-dominated Congress and said he wants the day to return when a "dollar will buy a dollar's worth of goods".

On labor, the Senatorial Candidate declared he would not let either selfish labor or selfish management "ruin the country". He recalled that he voted for the Taft-Hartley labor law last year.

Congressman Johnson hit at those men who expect the "county courthouse" to do everything — support prices, electrify homes, and combat inflation.

"Just now," he explained, "Texas warehouses are bulging with mohair because there is no market or price offered for it. Shall our ranchers take their plight to the county courthouse where it is traditional to settle local problems?

"No, you don't take those problems to a man who can see no farther than the county courthouse. You go to a higher authority, as the mohair growers have done. And you fight to get support prices, as we're fighting for the mohair growers out in West Texas."

After his opening, Johnson immediately left for Amarillo, for conferences there and a speech Tuesday night—and another in Wichita Falls Wednesday night. A big rally was planned in Longview Friday night and a speaking in Marshall Saturday.

NOTICE

According to a communication from the Governor of our State, the number of polio (infantile paralysis) cases in Texas is more than it has ever been in previous years. The Chief Executive requests that County Judges in each of the 254 Texas counties call to the attention of the citizens, the seriousness of this situation.

We must not become unduly excited over this matter but should be on the alert and use every precaution to keep our County free of contamination (AS IT IS TODAY). I feel that it should be called to the attention of our citizens throughout the County the imperative necessity of thorough campaigns for improved programs of sanitation. It rests with all the people to make the effort succeed and save our County from the serious consequences which can follow the disregard of this appeal.

Sincerely,
DAN TYSON
County Judge

Peanut Planters Are Urged to Report At Once to ACA Here

Farmers of Milam County having peanuts to be picked or threshed in 1948, are requested to make a report to the County ACA Office.

Mr. Atkinson, Chairman, of the Milam County ACA Committee said County Office personnel would begin measuring the 1948 peanut acreage about June 1st.

Since the office does not have a record of all farms planting this year, it will be the responsibility of the farm operator to report all farms on which he will have peanuts to be picked or threshed.

The Chairman stated that the measured acreage would be used as a reliable record in establishing future farm allotments.

THEY ENJOY CAMERON HOSPITALITY TO-DAY

In all there are 18 students, two teachers and 6 sponsors. They arrived in the city around 9 a. m. and from the Chamber of Commerce they were taken for a tour of the city and before the day is over they will have seen many things of interest to them and will have found the city and the business men extending their famous brands of hospitality.

The students are alternating their picnic sites from Wilson-Ledbetter Park to City Park. The Belmena students and teachers are spending their picnic hours in City Park where playground equipment and other things including ice water are placed for their conveniences and pleasure.

The school at Belmena like all other schools is nearing the close of the year and soon the vacation period will start. The annual picnic is a thing of delight and interest to students, teachers and sponsors.

The Chamber of Commerce in Cameron launched a public relations program this year that included receptions for students and already a large number of schools have visited the city. It was estimated by E. C. Cole, Chairman of the Committee that some 500 students would be here during the program period. Curry School brought 125 Wednesday.

The Belmena students will see The Daily Herald run from its special press and each student will be given a copy free. The names of all students, teachers and sponsors are printed.

The students see many types of business here and such industries as the town affords. The Chamber of Commerce has been complimented for this program.

BOWS OUT OF PICTURE WITH BITTER TIRADE

W. Lee O'Daniel, junior senator from Texas, bowed out of the political picture for the present with a bitter tirade against "The new deal in Washington" Thursday night and said he would not be a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate.

His withdrawal from politics leaves the field open to George Peddy of Houston, Congressman Lyndon Johnson of Austin and Coke Stevenson of Junction.

O'Daniel said he would not "burn the bridges behind me or in front of me" and indicated that he might return to the political stage at some near future date.

He rode to success as governor on hillbilly music, captializing on the deep seated rural honing for twang. Coupled with this naive appeal to hustings crowds he embellished his campaigns with the oldest demagoguery in political history, the poor against the rich but became the darling of the corporate interests.

Senator O'Daniel went to Washington an avowed enemy of the late President Roosevelt and on the whole never got anywhere as a member of the Senate. His influence was always negative. He barely nosed out Lyndon Johnson for the Senate in 1940.

Mr. O'Daniel said he was coming back to Texas to live and will reenter business. He said he would take no part in the coming primary election. Many believed he would run for governor but the suggestion that the big interests can carry only one candidate at a time, may have had something to do with his retirement.

Johnnie Barrett and Johnnie Sanders made a business trip to Rockdale Wednesday.
